

Early Turns Package

OPENING DAY THROUGH
DECEMBER 15, 2006

Get your ski legs back on the slopes and brush up on your technique with the Alta Lodge Early Turns Package! For eager skiers anxiously awaiting word that the mountain is open for the 2006-2007 season, we've put together a package to simplify your planning process so you can catch a quick getaway for some early season skiing.

INCLUDES:

- three nights lodging
- three days of Alta lift tickets
- full breakfasts and four-course dinners

RATES:

$795 per person, double occupancy;
$1,145 single occupancy

NOVEMBER 22-26, 2006

Thanksgiving Package

Consider getting a head start on the ski season this year by spending Thanksgiving at the Alta Lodge. Leave the cooking to Chef Paul Raddon and his staff while you ski out the door of the Lodge to the lifts on Thanksgiving morning. After skiing, unwind in the hot pool and sauna, get refreshed and join us for a Thanksgiving feast that's hard to beat. After a good night's sleep at the Lodge, you'll be ready to enjoy three more days of skiing, relaxation, and great meals.

INCLUDES:

- four nights lodging
- full breakfasts, four-course dinners and Thanksgiving dinner with all of the trimmings
- three days of Alta lift tickets

RATES:

$1,015 per person, double occupancy;
$1,482 single occupancy

News

Alta's Traditional Mountain Lodge

Looking Forward to Another Banner Year

AT THE ALTA LODGE

Another great winter season came to a close at Alta Lodge on April 16th. Alta had another banner snowfall year, hitting the 600-inch mark on April 6. During the month of March, 157 inches of snow fell, giving enthusiastic powder skiers plenty to rejoice about. As the season came to a close, we received many requests for information about increasingly popular lodging packages. For the 2006-2007 season, we've added some new packages that combine instruction and lodging, and some low season lodging and lift ticket packages. Be sure to make reservations early since 80% of our guests return each season.

Join Alta Lodge and Exum Utah Mountain Adventures for a 3-day/3-night Backcountry Skiing Package. Safe travel while skiing in the backcountry is a must, and this two-day course teaches skiers the fundamentals during two full days of backcountry skiing. A day prior to the start of seminar, a day of skiing at Alta is recommended for altitude acclimatization. Participants will learn about avalanche awareness, beacon rescue, safe route selection, efficient skinning on skis, and downhill skiing technique, while experiencing legendary Wasatch backcountry touring. Seminar participants will enjoy the warmth, convenience, and fine dining of the Alta Lodge after each day in the backcountry.

INCLUDES:

- three nights lodging
- one day Alta lift ticket
- two days of guided backcountry skiing
- full breakfasts, two sack lunches, and four-course dinners

SKI LEVEL: should be able to ski on non-groomed snow

FITNESS: should exercise routinely

RATES:
$677 - $930 per person

Backcountry Skiing Package

DECEMBER 7, 8, AND 9, 2006
APRIL 14, 15, AND 16, 2007

"Connie was a terrific instructor who took time to work with each of us. Her advice was right on—it made sense, I could work with it and I feel I am a much better skier as a result." -Andy A.

INCLUDES:

- five nights lodging
- full breakfasts and four-course dinners
- four days of ski instruction and lift tickets
- four days of demo skis
- three Alta lift tickets and one Alta/Snowbird lift ticket

JANUARY 6-11, 2007

Powder Tracks

If you have always wanted to learn how to ski Alta's incredible powder snow, Powder Tracks is the program to get you there. January 2007 marks the fifth year of Powder Tracks, teaming Alta's best lodging experience with top-notch instructors from the Alf Engen Ski School and a wide array of powder-specific skis from the Deep Powder House Ski Shop for participants to demo. The instructors and staff join the group nightly for après ski camaraderie and dining at the Lodge.

RATES:
$2,357 per person, double occupancy;
$3,038 single occupancy

Chef's Corner

One of the Alta Lodge's institutions is Chef Paul Raddon, who has been with the Alta Lodge for 38 years. Paul's creative flair with recipes, combined with traditional fare, brings a unique repertoire of menu items for Lodge guests. Last autumn he appeared on local CBS affiliate KUTV to demonstrate preparation of Smoked Salmon Lahvosh, an Alta Lodge favorite served with the traditional Thanksgiving Dinner. Paul will be working with local media this season on feature stories about menu items at the Lodge.

SMOKED SALMON LAHVOSH

- 1 Armenian cracker bread
- 1/2 lb. sliced smoked salmon
- 1 1/2 cups cream cheese
- 1 tablespoon sour cream
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh dill
- 2 thin sliced tomatoes
- 1 cucumber, thin sliced lengthwise

IN A MIXING BOWL: Place softened cream cheese, sour cream, and chopped dill and mix together with a mixer. Set aside cream cheese mixture. Soak the cracker bread in a large bowl of water to soften. Lay out on paper towels and dab dry. With a spatula, spread a thin layer of the cream cheese mixture over the entire piece of Lahvosh. Starting on the left edge of the softened cracker bread, and working to the right, place: sliced smoked salmon, a single strip wide from side to side, cucumber slices, one cucumber wide from side to side, tomato slices, one tomato wide, from side to side. Repeat items 1-3 until entire piece of cracker bread is covered. Starting at the bottom of the Lahvosh, roll very tightly. Wrap roll in plastic wrap and chill in the refrigerator for 2 hours. Remove plastic wrap and slice roll on a 45 degree angle. Slices should be about 1 inch wide. Place slices on a plate or arrange on a platter.

To see a taped demonstration of the preparation, visit <http://kutv.com/food> and enter "smoked salmon lahvosh" in the search section.

Book Discussion

During the winter season, the Alta Lodge Book Group meets one night each week for dessert and coffee to discuss the chosen book of the month. The Alta Lodge community (guests and staff) are welcome to attend and join in the discussion that is led by Cassie Dippo. Cassie has selected the following books for the 2006-2007 season.

DECEMBER: Ship Fever short stories by Andrea Barrett	FEBRUARY: The Pearl Diver by Jeff Talarigo
JANUARY: The Children's War by Monique Charlesworth	MARCH: Beyond the Sky and the Earth by Jamie Zeppa

Dear Friends,

This season marks the 47th year that the Levitt family has owned and operated the Alta Lodge. Over the years, we've met many wonderful guests and have become friends with many of you. As each season returns, we look forward to renewing friendships with old acquaintances and making new friends with first time guests. We always enjoy our visits with guests in the Sitzmark and the dining room, swapping stories and hearing about all the terrific runs that were skied that day.

Something you may not know--this past fall I chose not to run for re-election as mayor for the town of Alta, ending my 34th year and 9th term as the first elected mayor of Alta and the longest consecutive termed mayor in the State of Utah. Rest assured that the town of Alta is in good hands with our new mayor, Tom Pollard. Now I'll have more time for story-telling and possibly some skiing.

The Alta Lodge is where our heart is and where some of our most endearing friendships have been formed. We'll continue our winters there and hope to see you this season.

Best wishes, Bill and Mimi Levitt

JANUARY 27-FEBRUARY 1, 2007

Women's Ski Adventures

Kim Riechhelm's—Clinic for Women of All Abilities

Improve your skiing ability, overcome fears, gain confidence, and have a blast in the company of other women, with Kim Reichhelm's Women's Ski Adventures. These four-day, five-night skiing adventures, for all skiing abilities, are packages that allow you to focus on improving your skiing techniques without fretting logistical details.

Start the day with morning yoga and breakfast, then move into individualized ski instruction and video analysis with skiers of similar ability. Revel in great après ski parties to celebrate your accomplishments at the end of the day. Included are accommodations, meals, lift tickets, and equipment demos. As Kim says, "It's a whole ski empowerment experience. I want to create an environment that's fun. When you put your guard down, that's when you're going to learn." Visit www.skiwithkim.com for more information.

INCLUDES:

- five nights lodging
- full breakfasts and four-course dinners
- three Alta lift tickets and one Alta/Snowbird lift ticket
- 2 runs of Cat Skiing

RATES:

$2,849 per person, double occupancy;
$3,530 single occupancy

Kid's Program

The Alta Lodge offers a complimentary program for guests with young children. The program includes shuttle service to Alta Ski School in the morning, afternoon pick-up at ski school, après ski activities, kids' dinner, more activities and a movie.

Après ski activities are planned daily from 4:45 pm until around 8:30 pm, and kids participate in games, arts and crafts, snow play, and other fun. The activity is posted daily in the lobby and your kids are welcome to come and go as they please.

Women's Ski Camp

JANUARY 25-28, 2007

Just for women, the Alta Lodge Women's Ski Camp kicks off its inaugural session with the best of the Alf Engen Ski School's women's instructors. Women skiers from across the country join together for two and a half days of top-flight ski clinics that will take participants to new levels in their skiing experience. In addition to skiing, they will experience the warm ambiance of the Alta Lodge with après ski at the Sitzmark, afternoon tea, and a nightly four-course dining experience.

INCLUDES:

- four nights lodging
- full breakfasts and four-course dinners
- two day and one half-day ski instruction and Alta lift tickets
- morning half-day guided skiing

ABILITY LEVEL:

Intermediate to expert skiers

RATES:

$1,672 per person, double occupancy;
$2,218 single occupancy

Albion Basin contains over 100 varieties of wildflowers that bring an incredibly brilliant array of colors to the landscape. Blooms begin to appear in late June and reach peak season around mid-July, continuing into August. Consider taking a hiking vacation at the Alta Lodge this summer. The trails are abundant and the pace at the Lodge is easy. You'll see a side of Little Cottonwood Canyon that is quite a contrast to winter. Moose can be found in Albion Basin and mountain goat herds are frequently spotted on craggy ledges above the Lodge. During the summer the Lodge hosts weddings, family reunions, and conferences, and serves a renowned Sunday brunch as well as Saturday lunch. Group dinners can also be arranged.

Summer Side of Alta Lodge

JULY 22 & 23, 2006

Wildflowers & Wine Pairings Getaway

Join us at the Lodge on Saturday at 2 pm for a wildflower walk followed by a seven-course meal with wine pairings, overnight lodging, and Sunday Brunch. For a complete menu and wine list visit altalodge.com

RATES:

$119 per person, based on double occupancy with $30 optional wine pairings

JULY 28-30, 2006

Wasatch Wildflower Festival

The Wasatch Wildflower Festival is an annual event showcasing the magnificent display of wildflowers in Alta's Albion Basin. Festival events include guided wildflower walks, live music, and great food. The festival is a great way to familiarize yourself with Little Cottonwood Canyon's remarkable diversity of flowers. With many hiking trails across Alta's meadows and ridges, this is a perfect time to visit the Wasatch Mountains.

RATES:

begin at $94 per room

PO Box 8040
Alta, UT 84092-8040

